

K-love has over the last three years become a very integral part of my daily life. The interest it serves to both me and the community cannot be under estimated. K-love offers an uplifting prescence and hope in a world that rarely lives up to its ideals. Please do not allow the proposed LPFM stations to take priority over current FM translator service.